

Missionary Highlight

Megan Herrly — Timber Bay Ministries

Timber Bay understands the ministry of showing up and being a safe adult for our students who frequently experience heavy home lives, addiction, school problems, unhealthy relationships or simply the challenge of being a teen. We interact as community groups through camps, outdoor activities, and mentoring.

Since Christmas, the amount of middle school girls that I mentor has doubled. I have adored getting to know these young ladies and help them with whatever area they may be struggling with.

Timber Bay presence in the schools is vital to reach kids who may be slipping through the cracks. I have been able to connect with, on average, forty kids per week. At the middle school, the students will usually grab my arm after lunch and ask me to come to their gym class or walk with them to their next activity.

As we say goodbye, they express how appreciative they were that we were there for them. Moments like these are why we show up, because it impacts the kids far more than we tend to realize.

Also my girls and I have spent multiple weekends at camp, including K-Crew (volunteering in the camp kitchen) and “Sloppy” Work crew. I am inspired by their enthusiasm to volunteer.

Prayer Requests:

1. For the Timber Bay House whose lease expires at the end of May; for their search for property.
2. To find balance of planning my weekly gatherings and doing individual mentoring.
3. My need for more financial support at this time.

What John's Death Meant

Mark 6.7-30

<sup>7</sup> And he called the twelve and began to send them out two by two, and gave them authority over the unclean spirits. <sup>8</sup> He charged them to take nothing for their journey except a staff—no bread, no bag, no money in their belts—<sup>9</sup> but to wear sandals and not put on two tunics. <sup>10</sup> And he said to them, "Whenever you enter a house, stay there until you depart from there. <sup>11</sup> And if any place will not receive you and they will not listen to you, when you leave, shake off the dust that is on your feet as a testimony against them." <sup>12</sup> So they went out and proclaimed that people should repent. <sup>13</sup> And they cast out many demons and anointed with oil many who were sick and healed them.

<sup>14</sup> King Herod heard of it, for Jesus' name had become known.

Some said, "John the Baptist has been raised from the dead. That is why these miraculous powers are at work in him." <sup>15</sup> But others said, "He is Elijah." And others said, "He is a prophet, like one of the prophets of old." <sup>16</sup> But when Herod heard of it, he said, "John, whom I beheaded, has been raised." <sup>17</sup> For it was Herod who had sent and seized John and bound him in prison for the sake of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife, because he had married her. <sup>18</sup> For John had been saying to Herod, "It is not lawful for you to have your brother's wife." <sup>19</sup> And Herodias had a grudge against him and wanted to put him to death. But she could not, <sup>20</sup> for Herod feared John, knowing that he was a righteous and holy man, and he kept him safe. When he heard him, he was greatly perplexed, and yet he heard him gladly.

<sup>21</sup> But an opportunity came when Herod on his birthday gave a banquet for his nobles and military commanders and the leading men of Galilee. <sup>22</sup> For when Herodias's daughter came in and danced, she pleased Herod and his guests. And the king said to the girl, "Ask me for whatever you wish, and I will give it to you." <sup>23</sup> And he vowed to her, "Whatever you ask me, I will give you, up to half of my kingdom." <sup>24</sup> And she went out and said to her mother, "For what should I ask?" And she said, "The head of John the Baptist." <sup>25</sup> And she came in immediately with haste to the king and asked, saying, "I want you to give me at once the head of John the Baptist on a platter." <sup>26</sup> And the king was exceedingly sorry, but because of his oaths and his guests he did not want to break his word to her. <sup>27</sup> And immediately the king sent an executioner with orders to bring John's head. He went and beheaded him in the prison <sup>28</sup> and brought his head on a platter and gave it to the girl, and the girl gave it to her mother. <sup>29</sup> When his disciples heard of it, they came and took his body and laid it in a tomb.

<sup>30</sup> The apostles returned to Jesus and told him all that they had done and taught.
