Missionary Highlight

Tim & Mary Sue Austin –
Converge Ministries in Senegal

It is with heavy hearts and with deep and abiding trust in the providence of God that we have submitted a letter of resignation to Dakar Academy. "How can that be?" From your most recent letter you were anticipating your new assignment at Dakar Academy South.

But that opportunity has been recently and abruptly denied to us. A full account of the circumstances leading up to the current situation is beyond the scope of this ministry update.

We still love Dakar Academy. We heartily believe in the mission of the school and we trust God for the ongoing effectiveness and success of DA providing excellent education to the children of missionaries. But for the time being, it is clear that God is pointing us in a new direction. Our intent is to remain in ministry with Converge.

For now we know that in July we will be returning to Senegal to pack up our belongings and say farewell to our staff and friends. Then in August we will be returning to the United States and have been advised to do some trauma assessment and debriefing. Counseling of some sort is probably in order.

Prayer Requests:

1. Through this season of grieving and healing.
2. For wisdom as we seek new opportunities with Converge in some compacity.
3. For our practical needs for a place to live and store our belongings.

Reel Hope Project

Matthew 18.1-14

At that time the disciples came to Jesus, saying, "Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?" ² And calling to him a child, he put him in the midst of them ³ and said, "Truly, I say to you, unless you turn and become like children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven. ⁴ Whoever humbles himself like this child is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

⁵ "Whoever receives one such child in my name receives me, ⁶ but whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in me to sin, it would be better for him to have a great millstone fastened around his neck and to be drowned in the depth of the sea.

⁷ "Woe to the world for temptations to sin! For it is necessary that temptations come, but woe to the one by whom the temptation comes! ⁸ And if your hand or your foot causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away. It is better for you to enter life crippled or lame than with two hands or two feet to be thrown into the eternal fire. ⁹ And if your eye causes you to sin, tear it out and throw it away. It is better for you to enter life with one eye than with two eyes to be thrown into the hell of fire.

¹⁰ "See that you do not despise one of these little ones. For I tell you that in heaven their angels always see the face of my Father who is in heaven. ¹² What do you think? If a man has a hundred sheep, and one of them has gone astray, does he not leave the ninety-nine on the mountains and go in search of the one that went astray? ¹³ And if he finds it, truly, I say to you, he rejoices over it more than over the ninety-nine that never went astray. ¹⁴ So it is not the will of my Father who is in heaven that one of these little ones should perish.
