

Missionary Highlight

Jerry Skifstad — Reign Ministries

It has been a long time since you have heard from me and a lot has happened this past year. It is hard to believe that June 1 marks my fourth year on being back on staff with Reign Ministries. I continue to enjoy serving as Strategic Partnerships Coordinator.

With my health being what it is — a hip replacement in December with recovery taking longer than expected and my pacemaker replaced with a defibrillator because of an irregular heart beat— I will not be traveling as much this summer, delaying my trip to training camp until June 17.

This year we invited 10 youth pastors to come and experience a little of what the Lord does in the life of a student during a Royal Servant mission trip. Two of the 10 are able to come this summer. Our desire is that they would become more familiar with our ministry and catch a vision of partnering with us, making disciples.

I have two granddaughters going this summer on trips. One will be on the Nepal trip as Sr. Staff in charge of medical. The other will be a student on the Scotland team.

Prayer Requests:

1. For my granddaughters — that they would have a positive life experience this summer.
2. For my daily health to continue in ministry.
3. That others would be led to partner with me financially in needed support.

That One Time Jesus Walked on Water

Mark 6.45-56

<sup>45</sup> Immediately he made his disciples get into the boat and go before him to the other side, to Bethsaida, while he dismissed the crowd. <sup>46</sup> And after he had taken leave of them, he went up on the mountain to pray. <sup>47</sup> And when evening came, the boat was out on the sea, and he was alone on the land. <sup>48</sup> And he saw that they were making headway painfully, for the wind was against them. And about the fourth watch of the night he came to them, walking on the sea. He meant to pass by them, <sup>49</sup> but when they saw him walking on the sea they thought it was a ghost, and cried out, <sup>50</sup> for they all saw him and were terrified. But immediately he spoke to them and said, "Take heart; it is I. Do not be afraid." <sup>51</sup> And he got into the boat with them, and the wind ceased. And they were utterly astounded, <sup>52</sup> for they did not understand about the loaves, but their hearts were hardened.

<sup>53</sup> When they had crossed over, they came to land at Gennesaret and moored to the shore. <sup>54</sup> And when they got out of the boat, the people immediately recognized him <sup>55</sup> and ran about the whole region and began to bring the sick people on their beds to wherever they heard he was. <sup>56</sup> And wherever he came, in villages, cities, or countryside, they laid the sick in the marketplaces and implored him that they might touch even the fringe of his garment. And as many as touched it were made well.
