

Missionary Highlight

Cathy Campobello – Columbia

I really enjoy being with our Columbian brothers and sisters in the monthly pastor's and church planter's meeting. At this time we are learning about the tensions we have to live with and how to deal with those that are Biblical principles like: Grace vs. Law, Faith vs. Works, Strength vs. Weakness and Pride vs. Humility to name a few. It has been a good challenge for each of us to look at two truths and see the good and difficulties of both.

It was a great joy that I finally was able to participate in translating for our friends from Abide Ministries. It has been six years since they were in Columbia. Abide Ministries preached on the fact we are created to be loved, that we are not a mistake no matter what, and that God loves each of us. I delighted in having an opportunity to translate this message.

We are producing a Devotional Diary in Spanish that is being written mainly by women in Columbia. It is moving forward and we hope to have the materials into the publishers by October 1 to be corrected and edited. The stories are based on women of the Bible.

I have just celebrated thirty-five years serving in Columbia. I am grateful to continue in this nation that is not only full of many marvelous natural resources, but incredible people.

Prayer Requests:

1. For the publishing of the Devotional Diary; that it goes well.
2. For the newly elected National Women's board.
3. For the government to have wisdom from God to govern.

Jesus on Celebrity Preachers

Mark 12.35-44

And as Jesus taught in the temple, he said, "How can the scribes say that the Christ is the son of David? ³⁶ David himself, in the Holy Spirit, declared,

"The Lord said to my Lord,
"Sit at my right hand,
until I put your enemies under your feet."

³⁷ David himself calls him Lord. So how is he his son?" And the great throng heard him gladly.

³⁸ And in his teaching he said, "Beware of the scribes, who like to walk around in long robes and like greetings in the marketplaces ³⁹ and have the best seats in the synagogues and the places of honor at feasts, ⁴⁰ who devour widows' houses and for a pretense make long prayers. They will receive the greater condemnation."

⁴¹ And he sat down opposite the treasury and watched the people putting money into the offering box. Many rich people put in large sums. ⁴² And a poor widow came and put in two small copper coins, which make a penny. ⁴³ And he called his disciples to him and said to them, "Truly, I say to you, this poor widow has put in more than all those who are contributing to the offering box. ⁴⁴ For they all contributed out of their abundance, but she out of her poverty has put in everything she had, all she had to live on."
